MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 27, 1767.

PARMA, May 8.

IT ſeems as if the Heads of all the Jeſuits in the World were turned. Thoſe of Milan have juſt eſtabliſhed a new Congregation, whoſe Statutes bind the Members to the Preſect, or Tutor, by the moſt ſacred Oaths; and it is expreſsly ſaid therein, that they are to be governed entirely by the Deciſions of the Prefect in all religious Affairs; becauſe before he pronounces, the ſaid Prefect is to retire and conſult with GOD, who will declare his Mind to him. The Banner of this Congregation has been conſecrated by the Archbiſhop of Milan in the Principal Church, and every Thing paſſed publicly; but as ſoon as the Statutes appeared in Print, they were condemned and ſeized. The Count de Firmian, Adminiſtrator of the Milaneze, has put a Seal upon the Prefect's Papers, and has wrote to the Court of Venice about this Affair.

Franckfort, May 24. His Highneſs the Reigning Prince of Hohenlohe Kircheberg, was, during Divine Service, at the Cathedral of Anſpach, whilſt the Sermon was preaching on this Text, "Remember, Man, thy latter End," ſeized with a Paralytic Fit, and died inſtantly.

Paris, May 22. A Woman of Morlaix was brought to Bed in February laſt, of a Daughter, who had Two Necks and Two Heads, and lived to receive Baptiſm. She was opened, after her Death, when they found in her Two Hearts.

Edinburgh, May 25. There is now living in a Village near Lead-Hills, about Thirty-three Miles from this City, a Man, named John Taylor, aged 130 Years. He was born in England, bred to the Buſineſs of a Miner, in which Capacity he worked there ſome Years before he came to Scotland, and has a Diſcharge to ſhow from the Earl of Lauderdale, when the Scots Mint was given up at the Union. He lately walked Two Engliſh Miles from his Houſe, to be preſent at the Chriſtening of his Grand-Child; and, after ſpending ſome Time in Merriment on the Occaſion, returned home the ſame Evening, without any Aſſiſtance.

LONDON.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, May 15.

"The Marquis de Courtenvaux, Captain of the King's Swiſs Guard, and Honorary Member of the Royal Academy of Sciences, has fitted out a Frigate at Havre, on board which he is to imbark immediately, to go and ſail along the Coaſts of Holland, the Northern Coaſts of Germany, and perhaps thoſe of England. The principal Object of his Voyage is to make Trial of ſome Clocks and Inſtruments, deſigned to facilitate the Determination of the Longitudes by Sea, and particularly the Watch of the Sieur le Roi, and the Megameter, or Grand Meaſurer, of the Sieur Charnieres. The Sieur Pengré, regular Canon, and late Librarian of S. Genevieve, and the Sieur Meſſier, Aſtronomer of the Marine, will accompany the Marquis, who ſet out on the 14th for Havre."

[This Letter mentions to us what the French are pleaſed to call the principal Object of the Marquis de Courtenvaux's Voyage; but perhaps it might be worth Enquiry, how far theſe pretended Aſtronomical Obſervations of theirs may be made with a political View. At leaſt Surveys of the Coaſts of England, by ſo ſubtile a People, our natural Enemies, are Circumſtances which afford Room for a good deal of Suſpicion.]

June 1. His Majeſty has appointed——Hort, Eſq; to be Conſul General at Liſbon, in the room of Sir Henry Frankland, Bart.

June 3. We are credibly informed, that the preſent Miniſter from the Emperor of Morocco having received a great Affront, has demanded Satisfaction from this Court, to puniſh the Offender, that it may ſerve for an Example to others, who may be unacquainted with their Prerogative.

Monday, as an over drove Ox ran into Guildhall, a Gentleman, paſſing by, aſked what was the Matter? To which a droll Fellow, among the Croud, replied, that an Ox was juſt gone into Guildhall, in a great Paſſion, to complain to the Lord Mayor of the Inhumanity of the Drovers.

We hear that the principal Citizens of Norwich, have ſet the laudable Example of trying an Expedient for avoiding Venality and Corruption at the Election of Members of Parliament, by ſubſcribing the following Aſſociation: "Senſible of the great Depravity of Morals, and Licentiouſneſs of Manners, brought upon us by Bribes at our Elections, and alarmed at the Thoughts of that Bondage which muſt inevitably be the Fruit of it, we, whoſe Names are under-written, not ſeeing the Neceſſity of ſubmitting to a Nomination founded on the corrupt Principles of Bargain and Sale, and having no Point in view but to chooſe our Repreſentatives with Honour to themſelves and the City, and to preſerve our own Freedom and Independency, do hereby unite and aſſociate in one friendly Society, binding ourſelves to each other by our Word and Honour, and promiſing that we will not, on any Conſideration whatever, either directly or indirectly, engage our Vote and Intereſt to any Candidates, or to any Perſon on their behalf, againſt the next general Election of Members to ſit in Parliament, until the very Day of Election; and then each Man to vote as his Inclination may prompt him. And in the mean Time, we recommend to each other to keep a watchful Eye upon what paſſes, and to have frequent Converſation upon the Subject."

BOSTON, August 10.

Laſt Thurſday ſe'nnight Captain Hyſlop arrived at Caſco-Bay from London, which Place he left about the 7th of June; by whom we hear, that the Board of Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms was actually eſtabliſhed, to conſiſt of 7, and a Salary of 300l. each; and the Secretary and Receiver General of the Board, 300l. each—That Lieut. Governor Hutchinſon, and Mr. Secretary Oliver, would have been of the Board, but are provided for another Way, by Salaries to be paid them out of the Revenues raiſed on Duties on ſeveral Articles of Commerce, by which they, with all the Officers of the Crown, will be rendered independent of the People:—That the Chief Juſtice of the Superior Court was to have 500 l. and the Secretary 300 l. per Annum—That nothing would be attempted by way of internal Taxation of the Colonies.—And that the Addreſs of the Houſe of Commons to the King in Behalf of the Gentlemen who ſuffered in the Colonies during the late Troubles, praying for ſome Recompence, or peculiar Marks of the Royal Favour to them, was graciouſly anſwered by Aſſurances of his Majeſty's Intention to reward them for their Attachment to Government.

We alſo hear that the Act of Compenſation and Indemnity, lately paſſed here, was diſallowed.

SCHEME
OF THE
MARYLAND LIBERTY LOTTERY.

THE Lower Houſe of Aſſembly of Maryland have unſuccſſfully and ineffectually, hitherto, ſince Seventeen Hundred and Thirty-nine, RESOLVED, That his Lordſhip hath no Right to collect Twelve-pence per Hogſhead on Tobacco exported.

A Conſtitutional Tax on the People to ſupport an Abuſe of the Appointment of the Lower Houſe, has been frankly declared, frequently attempted, and as often refuſed by the Upper Houſe.

The Lower Houſe of Aſſembly contend, That the Conſent of the Council his reaſonable Reward, as well as every other Expence neceſſarily attending the Execution of the Powers of Government, ought to be defrayed out of the Fines, Forfeitures, Amerciaments, and other Monies received by the Government for the Support thereof; and, "That Eſtabliſhment being directly oppoſite to the Opinion the Upper "Houſe hath on mature Conſideration formed upon the "Subject of the Clerk of the Council's Claim," principally occaſioned the Non-payment of the Public Debt for upwards of Ten Years: The Diſtreſs of Trade for Want of a Circulating Medium, and the extreme Neceſſity of Public Creditors, compelled the Lower Houſe to agree to an Appeal to his Majeſty in Council, on the Subject Matter of Difference, without the Allotment of any Public Money for that Purpoſe, as the only Means to ſettle Diſputes, reſtore Public Credit, and lay a ſure Foundation for the future Eaſe and Good of the Province.

A Subſcription therefore, by RESOLVE of the Lower Houſe, has been Open'd, and Subſcriptions are taken in by every Member, for maintaining an Agent, and ſupporting the Appeal on the Part of the People, as well as obtaining Redreſs of their other Grievances; and, by RESOLVE alſo of the Lower Houſe, as an additional Means of raiſing Money for the ſame Purpoſes, the following SCHEME of a LOTTERY, by which to raiſe One Thouſand Pounds Common Money, is ſubmitted to the Public.
